Bangalore based Brigade Hospitality Services Limited (BHSL), a wholly owned subsidiary of Brigade Group today announced that Nirupa Shankar, Director, BHSL won the “Restaurant Owner of the Year” award at the 2nd edition of the recently concluded Hospitality Leaders’ Choice Awards. The award was presented for - HIGH Ultra Lounge, the unique sky lounge on top of the World Trade Centre, Bangalore, as per a release.

The annual summit facilitates the meeting of key stakeholders in the hospitality industry which includes Hotel Owners, Hotel Operators, Architects, Interior Designers and Developers.
Nirupa Shankar, Director – Brigade Hospitality Services said “Owning and operating a restaurant was a childhood dream despite the industry being highly competitive and all-consuming. Winning this award as a first time restaurateur is truly amazing. The journey at HIGH Ultra Lounge has been tough but tremendous. It’s takes a lot of hard work to create a vibrant atmosphere along with good financials in a non-traditional location for F&B but with the help of the right team in place anything is possible. I owe and dedicate this award to my team at HIGH Ultra Lounge and Brigade Hospitality”

Having joined the business in 2009 Nirupa Shankar was responsible for bringing in new focus and energy into the company. She oversees the group’s hospitality ventures that include hotels, clubs and convention centres and is specifically responsible for the hospitality division’s growth and strategy.

The 2nd Edition Hospitality Leaders’ Industry Choice Awards saw awards presented in a total of 13 categories for buyers and 4 categories for suppliers. The nominees for these awards were adjudged on the basis of a voting process that involved professionals from the hospitality fraternity. Individuals then chose between nominees from various categories and cast their votes online.
